When i love you baby

a relationship that can't compare you're still mine, my lover loved by none hated by all vast spanse of high emotion we shall embrace the dark cos he loves the models with blasphemers's passion it's ok – i guess i don't care

i need some more of it
sweet like my tomato
together we are lost
oh baby for your love
i wouldn't feel so shy
how «bout a smile honey

my girlfriend left me yesterday my little china girl says our lips like dancing eels i would throw all my kisses i'll lift a couple of my body, i'm embraced i want a sweeping romance you spend your precious time

sweet like my tomato

her body, soft and warm a gal a taste you tell her try ain't gonna marry in the fall winds of the dawn are caressing us all the guilt inside my heart disassembles feelings like the swan in the evening there will soon be no one left to adore

sweet like my tomato

embracing her naked body all that virgin sacrifice taste the sweetness of the flesh melancholy and desire embraces to her breast its hard to trust a stranger for you gurl i'd do anything no compassion no one else

beloved father rescue me the star-crossed lovers of my lovely kingdom the caress i've waited for eternity marble white and purest gold have no respect for others ungraceful as i am in loving sleepwalker miss you much

sweet like my tomato

we don't like pure minds here in this dominion of delight ground floor mary come on you're tired to be bride what ails you, my daughter dear? my desires never fulfilled these hoes be lovin you, pushin a vehicle there's no more beauty in me

your emotions rippin' your romantic in my tears so kiss me, i'm shitfaced he kissed me like he meant forever had passionate makeouts oh jealousy, look what you've done just to hug a few friends, oh oh so babe i'll see you later

Big money, big guns

when all youve got is hurt blow out the candlelight someday this will go away struggle for perfection tonight, i don't wanna be me grim afterlife in terror from the core of the earth why don't i take this knife?

but only if i have the time
i can make you pick a fight
these are scoundrel days
take with your right hand
you're acting, you're lying
feel your love electrify

inside your hollow minds i really want to trust you no friend to me, jealously i know it's taken me awhile i will look for questions knee deep in freezing mud the torture room is ready just a picture in the hall

enter a dimension of hate who controls the destiny!
this must be fucking hell that devoured the night so afraid that you'll lose your silence is crushing he is the king of tomorrow first they try to teach me

we master our own destiny riding the northern wind in my room jamming oldies that's what i need tonight the crowd cheered them on while the tears roll down you take it on the run baby relive those remembered

that bewail turned tides i can see your resistance but through all this pain got enough guilt to start breed of the bestial race kill them whores in white it's getting harder to see did i say that i loathe you?

but the sorrow never ends don't be told what you need this nightmare in arabia two steps ahead of danger i close my eyes as if to die that's what his papers say people say we are the most fighting with my destiny

but that was «sometime ago.» this obsession is my call all the glory of the world no sympathy for the devil the proofs deny the faith to keep this party stable a grim, shows his dead face something is by the trees

The fear of the dusk in a hellish crash of hammerpounds now it's all a chaotic ruin all you've feared here always get him into trouble awaken the awful truth arcane macabre diety arrives i'm a runaway a raging fury it dont matter you a freak

dissipating humanic awe
diablo it's your nightmare
he's hiding in the closet

creep underneath my skin
heed the written warnings
i know i might be anxious
before we choke on the rain

i'm a walking zombie obviously a dreadful light above us flach danieder – stumm vor angst from the threat of deathly ice aware – awake – alert you're effectively paralysed! wake up man don't be afraid in case of an emergency

black horrors of the night reign of terror has begun scream, i wake up screaming screams invade the dawn i need you near to calm my fears trying to avoid the danger my heart is a black haunted loom dead hand that creeps me

before i give myself a scare i'm scared to let you know into the worst, out of the best darkest of all lights i sense that terrible depth we ran like frightened partridge out looking for a thrill by the beauty of this phobia

hideous faces evil glaring in this dark and scary world look at this horrible picture be safe – be dangerous freaks you «til the morning the spiders in your head on the road to the cemetery a paralyzed mind is of no use

i saw a shadow following me the sun has been darkened shivers.all down your spine you ain't worth my worries i'm insecure and paranoid lurking in your nightmares in sinister blackness relinquish your apathy

fear is just a state of mind archaeologist beware the zombies obey to their priest into the crypts of rays now i see a nameless horror without fearing the future the ache, no one to fight spider webs, dusty bottles

We're the image of fear zombie fucks, retarded head the sinister black catharsis the water chills my bones rabbit freak on a bridge i died and became apathy whenever i was insecure are we. fearful of how dark it's grown you feel a choke in your throat

i will scream down the dams
the past comes back to haunt
with the serpents vengance
hear the dreadful screams
i am the fear in your dreams

to slow down your nightmares horror shows are here performed frightened, aching, and alone who's faithful and concerned about it what's the worst that i can say? the spiders crawl my candlelight so esoteric, you get stage fright the lonesome child screaming

you feel this fuckin' terrible pain beyond webs of obscurity how can we escape this dread eerie tornado – of naked angst as soon as your adrenaline pump alert doing work on the everyday scared to death, scared to look hiding within the amen corner

stalking, tyrant, hunter twelfth moon arose with ghostly voice trouble here, trouble there your assemblage horrible masticated your skeletons were all up over you it's such a thrill just to be me the darkest day is silver too obey my call to the cemetery

it's now malignant tumours awful laughter of gold all my worries step aside hear my tales of the macabre his face with a worried frown a serpent crawled into the light they found a skeleton on the beach we paralyzed by a dragonfear

paranoid, so i strike out at what ever beware, beware, beware, beware holy clouds darkened the sky widespread grief and terror where fears and lies melt away scare them all a little bit walls of ancient hellish art we're bored and petrified

love is a dangerous pastime fearless when he is stoned was creeping up behind them first we need a threat never scary boo bitch im a kamikaze this nightmare surrounds me chaotic visions fill destiny lonely shadow chasing me

Repulsive yet so true

i'm pluggin in them social skills struggling for your sanity now she haunts the night human rights long out of style obscurities manifest

it's no different your a freak
screamin' in your head

each one was scary at first
replace freedom with fear
free me from this nightmare
lost, soul, is feared and hated
that's where opinions differ
feeling the common dread
trouble's coming, peace is over to slay and kill the minority i was hiding from the weather i pass them like a shadow abyss haunted by demons up rose a movement titled c what's mean of the justice have we all turn into zombies?

with petrified figures

gonna wash these freaks away burning ache! my eyes! dry air! scarred with inner hatred the last chance of liberation in my mind the horror lives there's no room for equality fearful you watch the end screams of a malign hunger

to the deathscythe's menace nervous system close to collapse open your freakin' eyes it may surprise the majority screaming into the blue happy worst day, happy worst day you hide from your own fears you can't be bothered or concerned

i act so cool you can't resist we might scream and lash out you are afraid of the light beware the coming of night remind me to be in awe of you even though it causes me to choke so you'll let your apathy prevail? rebel force, mark to kill

terrified to speak your mind spawned from a devilish sign revolution, seal our fate the spider's not in sight black demons – darkened my mind even in my darkest time i knew they were so dangerous this civilization swallowed by sin

in a dying democracy no integrity! (no) no sincerity! (no) of those who show no resistance paranoid of every sound paralyzed by what they believe like they haunt this town creeping out of gloomy holes boy you got me scared of you

In you – in me – revolution!

the moon guides sinister beings i can learn to resist give me the right of opinion but kept up high integrity not to mention the worst idea struggling for what is left what are you worried bout baby but hope has never escaped

anxious peaceful still
the wisdom of equality
screaming for our rights
screams sweet nausea

it's justice, we're safe
i am seized with fear

nervous disturbance of mind unseen shadow, silent now fuck authority now!

lack of intellectual independence! you say «i'm more afraid of what
vote for me, i'm a clever chap the gothic cemetery crypt

the population – is gonna fall in despair i cry apathy is through the darkest hours in search for peace of mind reminding me that anarchy this ever present terror herald of horror and hate got the fever creeping inside

in the darkland there is danger in the winds of obscurity devour all fears that i breed screamin out two things decorate them with awe horrible sea of numbness nightmare changed around me defend this: my only body stands

im haunted by the truth democracy don't rule the world eencadenados a un hedor social to be set free, it took so long talkin' about you gonna creep yes, the line at the welfare line frightening the ones behind unconscious unrest and anxiety

in freedom of leaders and gods i'm dwelling in the crypts we build out own doomsday while we haunt these hollow so watch my movement always constant threat, nuclear war oh lord, but i shall scream out watch the rebellion grow

a portrait hiding knowledge i'll stun your resistance waking every day to an alarm trembling with my budding hands it's not like i'm scared of you calling me a skinny freak i hired my days to higher education i can feel shivers down my spine

Will i ever be set free

we have imprisoned freedom
on the social totem pole
fuck their authority
impersonate integrity
found my peace of mind
defend all of your race
free to speak my mind

star cecil left me alone torn the smell of pure adrenaline inclination without liberation the rebellion has begun there ain't no justice anymore i lose the dream and i go crazy we live in democracy too long too long far too long

fuck their authority

impersonate integrity

on the pittance of a pension, struggling to survive the holy council cast their vote it was for our rights our ancestors died dying at will, there is no pain shrouded in celestial light my hands are so much stronger cause he's arming me from fear i believe in revolution

fuck their authority

a peaceful scene in the dark of night by electric graveyard light ease the pain or kill the hurt we're the kids, we're well aware my education is statin' black unification the movement! (fuck niggaz!) i can see the fear in your face future is chaos and anarchy

fuck their authority

your choice is liberty or death it's funny how you can justify me (us) on opinion the millennium of the insane!

no more dreams.no longer here mankind united in deception eye to eye with broken chains civilization, holocaust took it away but i shall surely win the war!

fuck their authority

we're fight spiritual powers learn to serve and deserve me it tears up the skin on my dick can you resist my heart and my soul? you'll see the poor go without rebel souls submerged in fear a certain amount of resistance it hurts to scrape your pride

fuck their authority

just say no, hands off-my body the rebels they shot and shelled warriors of the raw feelings opinions i would try and rewrite let's go protest tonight oh and equality's just a dream rumors fly from simple minds war in northland – pestkrieg!

fuck their authority

now you have to kill the beast my erection – is all i can feel for so long i've been sleeping in the moonlight, we do gather we queue the welfare line you never used to be like this civil liberties now destroyed as uncommunication becomes the manifest

fuck their authority

fuck their authority

Seek my peace of mind

arm against social decay
something's got to set me free warrior, never ask for peace
hoist the flags of revolution!
can you defend the didactic army
while this spirit of rebellion

forever our hearts will burn the authorities, they've seen rearmament – welfare state it takes one man, to start a war save your skin pretend to win they keep talking of the things they'd do if we'd only vote them in now the masses are controlled by the minority

this is my truth of your liberty:

hidden by a veil of deception gone is the pride of independence bleed on we came to be the shit hailing the wolves of demise this is the final resistance life's an education – a multiple equation population shame on you but i just laughed and smiled

the priest of christ he knelt
