Everything I write about once happened. It means that it has coincided and can coincide once again. But not necessarily every time...

Everything I thought about, what I put in the book, what I saw when I wrote this book is interesting and deserves a separate story. But now is important what you see and what you think about.

Now I will tell you in detail about how one record was born.

I was walking through the hospital park and suddenly I saw a red cord on the tree. I came closer – I was interested in where this cord leads. And at the top, I saw New Year's light bulbs left there for a whole year. Here is what I wrote down: "Follow the unexpected, and perhaps a miracle will be revealed to you."

◇ Sometimes it's easier to persuade a small child than your own friend to do something.

◇ The striving to prove one's case is offensively for both parties.

◇ The baby sometimes finds something that I do not see.
But, having learned what exactly he is looking for, I can find it too.

And people will find it for him.

◇ Literature is so multifaceted because everyone understands the same thing differently.

Only physics with mathematics are the exact sciences:

$4 + 4 =$ always 8, never 15.

◇ Awareness of the need to accumulate money comes with experience.

◇ Do not disregard the valuable, because it will attract the attention of a passerby.

Who is shallow and greedy is like a crow.

◇ And, so that the purse could be filled, do not forget to put the necessary there.

So that it knows what you are looking for, what you need and how to breathe with its help.

◇ Having killed a fly I am not considered to be a murderer, but having said a terrible word, I can become him.

◇ To ask with the spontaneity of a child does not mean to receive everything.

◇ To find what you are looking for, it's better to separate and search in different directions.

◇ Sometimes similar is not true.

◇ I give you as much as you give me. Others give even more or even the last.

◇ Bypassing obstacles from the necessary, correct side, we surely will pass close to the beautiful.

◇ If you want an answer, ask the right question.

◇ The bag is usually full exactly as much as you can fit into it. The bag is filled instantly or over time.

◇ We hardly know the meaning of the incomprehensible, if we don't ask about it.

◇ Mushrooms do not always grow where they are looked for.

◇ Thoughts are born from desire.

◇ The safest thing is to not rush.

◇ Saying “meow” to a dog, we speak different languages.

◇ Do not wait for miracles on the “Field of Miracles”, you will obviously be a miracle.

◇ In pursuit of the unknown, we must be prepared for the negative side of the letter “X”.

◇ When we don’t know something, we are young. And when we know – experienced.

And we are old when we don’t want to accept new things.

◇ When they laugh at him, someone is offended, someone defends himself, and someone is not afraid to laugh at himself.

◇ The teaching that the enemies of the father are your enemies is dangerous for your children.

◇ When the bride kisses the groom, while he carries her in her arms, it is so beautiful.

◇ Mountains are everywhere, you just have to look for them.

◇ Parched creek need to be saved.

◇ A haystack is not only for business, it saves lovers from rain.

◇ Two wells standing close to each other are not a hindrance to each other.

But, if you decorate one and forget about the second, the abandoned one will die.

◇ Sometimes one unearthly point is enough for the whole house to shine.

◇ The child saw horns on the wall and asked: “Are there deers, are they found here?”.

◇ The Alcoholic is similar to the glutton who does not grudge for himself anything.

◇ Usually necessary key are suitable only to one door.

◇ It is unknown, if the river is green because of stones or stones illuminate the water.

◇ Approaching our loved ones, we do not always love. But, leaving, almost always suffer.

◇ Our feelings do not always coincide with the majority opinion. Attitude towards life is different for everyone.

◇ When a team runs, it doesn't matter who runs first, time is still counted according to the last.

◇ Having found a worthy excuse, we can always rest easily.

◇ You should not live in the ashes, but you can not leave the ruins. Their appearance scares not only you.

◇ If it seems to you that there is no desired place, you can still find it.

◇ Is it possible to be devoted to sports, if you have never practiced it?

◇ If you want to scare, push the gas pedal all the way down.

◇ Hurring somewhere, you involuntarily push others.

◇ If you've made a mistake and your dismissal is not far off, better imagine the worst outcome with shouts and crushing. Perhaps the reality will be much better.

◇ When you are told to “step back,” it is not necessary to run away.

◇ Knowing that there is a railing nearby gives us a sense of superiority over an abyss.

◇ By setting ourselves a point in the future, we give impetus to progress. It is important that there would be quite a lot of these points.

◇ Having divided the task into small convenient fragments, it can be solved much faster than grabbing at all at once.

◇ That for an elephant of a horn, for a chaffinch of a huge horn.

◇ If you say something, always consider that you can be understood in two ways.

Even if you meant “stadium”, the deaf will hear “idión”.

◇ If employers clearly knew that the harvest happens once a year, they would honestly warm their employees until the time comes.

◇ Often the same book there is in two different libraries.

And besides this, two different owners of this book may not notice it at all.

◇ Sometimes we are so ashamed to take a centime found on the road. But with what sincere happiness we will put the found lat in the wallet!

◇ After giving the last, know: it will be back soon.

◇ Everyone needs a personal boss. But not only to command, sometimes the boss must take care.

◇ A good team always honors its commander.

◇ To the poor, needy, working at not prestigious works:

Do you think if the person – the cleaner, is old or the disabled person, it is impossible to make a complaint on him?

◇ To the rich, directors or just cool people:

It is not necessary to shout at subordinates or to despise the beggars.

◇ Only noble stones grow dim in the company of gawks.

◇ In the sea of stars there is always a small place for a small star.

◇ To create something, you need to fall in love with someone or something.

◇ Suppose, putting unnecessary things in the archive, we will increase the volume.

Having created the folder “unnecessary”, after years it is always possible to find something wonderful.

You can put something valuable in your pocket, forget it, and then find it.

◇ Whatever you say, it can be understood in two ways. Only in mathematics $2 + 2 =$ always 4.

But we do not express ourselves with numbers.

◇ How two have been dressing the child:

In a mess of three, tights usually suffer.

◇ To many for whom everything in life is impossible and nothing makes them glad:

Think that there is a child and he was a real angel in his childhood. And there is work, it does not bite.

◇ In the creativity, like in a casino: sometimes you are having lucky, sometimes not.

◇ No matter how many bottles there are you are likely to choose only one for yourself.

The funny thing is that the next time you choose the same one.

◇ Giving back your production technology, count on its improvement.

Having shown strawberry fields to your friends, do not expect that the next year the strawberries will die out.

Because it is difficult to collect everything or spoil something already existing.

Kama Sutra is the only one, but from publication to publication it becomes more expensive and more elegant.

◇ For the first time almost always – whether it is the choice of food or music – you will not feel the taste at all.

◇ Selected men are in their places.

Women do not seek friends.

Kids are subjected to friendship without loving.

◇ Receiving a gift, find out about yourself. Having given a present – uncover yourself.

◇ A team of oranges of different varieties will defeat a lemon surely.

◇ The lawn – to the gardener: Sometimes nobody needs your path.

◇ When you ask a question, you never know that the interlocutor understood it correctly.

The correct answer gives you one hundred percent guarantee that the interlocutor understands you, and the hope that he will understand you in the future.

◇ I am aggressive when I know that I am imperfect.

◇ Not without reason philosophers had been teaching to read the book of life. People who have learned to understand it, wrote, invented and taught better than others.

◇ Feelings depend on facts.

It's possible to juggle with facts, and then our feelings end.

Trust your heart in love. At the trial, the judge has no heart.

◇ About facts:

A look is an interesting thing, sometimes you can see what you are looking for only from the third time.

◇ About intuition:

Scent sometimes let down.

◇ Finally:

The brain is a strange thing. If he is sure that he is right, it is almost impossible to convince him.

So, the facts are needed accurate. Intuition never hurts. And the judge, like the brain, must always know that he can be wrong.

◇ Moving forward, wait for mistakes and difficulties. Although without them the speed is much higher.

Do not be afraid to make mistakes, mistakes sometimes lead to great discoveries, you just have to manage to get some benefit from them.

Expect the difficulties. And, like everything expected, they will not be so terrible.

◇ He who is up-and-coming:

The compliment said in time is more valuable than a step.

◇ The meaning of laws and commandments is not only to be blindly followed. Their main value is the opportunity to teach us how to live beautifully.
