I lived in Seoul, still renting the same rooftop house. My friend suggested the Agency, which redirected the specialties. I decided to go to the film industry and become a screenwriter. My job was to write a script for a movie or series. I was approached by the Director and read the script and said: – Not bad, not bad! who would you like to offer for the main role, you better see, when he wrote, differently represented. That's right! I showed a photo on my phone, it was a photo of Lee Hong Ki. – His on major role!

– Well wishes will be fulfilled! – This is not desires, my dream all life! – Oh, there! all accepted, but you should at least get to know him. – Yes, of course. With a smile, I went home leaving my contacts and somewhere in a day, the Director called and invited me to meet with Lee Hong Ki. I decided to dress up, tinted lips. Came to the cafe at the appointed time. Seeing him made my heart skip a beat. Honky was dressed all in white and was as beautiful as ever. After greeting him, I sat opposite and told him: You know what I want from you? he nodded without raising his head. -Sorry I am!

-Nothing! I was just thinking about mine. We walked a lot getting to know each other closer and closer. Then our meeting at work took place. The Director asked: – And who will be your opponent? – Park Hyun-She! I answered sharply. -It is clear! all the scenes were great and Hyun-She asked me: -Why me? and for example and not Park Bo Young?
